

ETHICS POLICY

Faze Three Limited as a part of its philosophy, way of working style and culture believes to implement strict standards of high morales and integrity.

As a part for achievement of these, Faze Three firmly believes that and will also act for that :

No employee will receive or give any bribe to any fellow employee, any customer or any trade partner including the vendors/suppliers.

Faze three as a responsible corporate body will also not receive or give any bribe to any individual or a body in whatsoever form for the accomplishment of any work and/ or job in full or part.

All employees are expected to contribute to the success of Faze Three by performing their jobs as required and conducting themselves in a professional manner consistent with the company's business philosophy, ethic, values and standards of business conduct.

Employee honesty and integrity are essential to ethical business practices. Unacceptable conduct that is considered detrimental to the company's best interests may result in immediate disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Misuse of Faze Three property, including the company's equipment/product, supplies information, e-mail, intranet and computer can constitute unethical conduct.

A mechanism will be in force to look into the implementation of this policy and also to investigate any complaint received from any individual.

This policy is communicated with all interested parties and all people working for or on behalf of our Faze Three Group.
